

giftEDnz: The Professional Association for Gifted Education, with the support of Massey University College of Education, invites anyone with a professional interest in gifted and talented education to attend

2010 Mini-Conference and Annual General Meeting

Future Directions in Gifted Education: Informing the Professionals

20 March 2010, 9:15 am to 4:00 pm
Sir Neil Waters Building NW200
Albany Campus of Massey University, Auckland

Featured Speakers

- The Hon Heather Roy, Associate Minister of Education
Vision and Initiatives for Gifted and Talented Education (including Q & A session)
- Chris Harwood, Manager, Learning and Teaching, Ministry of Education
Implementing National Standards for Primary-aged Gifted and Talented Students
- Dr Valerie Margrain, Lecturer, Massey University College of Education
Using Learning Stories with Young Gifted Children
- Viv Russell, students and colleagues from Rutherford College
Supporting Māori and Pasifika Gifted and Talented Students
- Prof Michael Piechowski, Senior Fellow of the Institute for Educational Advancement and Professor Emeritus of Education and Psychology, Northland College, Ashland, Wisconsin
Empowering Children Through Personal Growth

Registration costs (including morning tea and lunch)

- Individual member of giftEDnz - $60
- Institutional member of giftEDnz - $60 for first staff member to register, $50 for each additional staff member
- Non-member of giftEDnz - $75

To register, complete the registration form available on our website: www.giftednz.org.nz
For all registration enquiries, please email giftednz@gmail.com